PRESENTATION OF THE FAMILY HISTORY OF VALENTINE JOHANN BAAB, SR. AND ELIZABETH RUPPERT

Presented to the 40th Annual Baab Family Reunion at the Fairgrounds in Dover, Ohio-August 7, 1949

Revised and Presented to the 54th Annual Reunion, Baltic, Ohio, June 2, 1963

The Historical Committee of the Baab Family is pleased to present to our 54th Reunion, the revised history of our family dating from the year 1677 up to the present time.

The records of our family prior to 1677 are meager; because of religious strife and persecutions, records were lost or destroyed. Our early ancestors lived in France and during the Reformation they turned from Catholics to Protestants. The French Protestants were called Huguenots and in 1546 the first French Protestant community was formed. For the next hundred and fifty years there was constant struggle between the Catholics and Protestants in France and many thousands of Protestants were put to death. In 1681, Louis XIV, King of France, excluded all Protestants or Huguenots from public office and the army; their schools and churches were closed and their preachers were forbidden to preach, all because the King wanted to please the Pope. Many Huguenots started to leave France and since they were of the better class of people, principally business persons adept at manufacturing, trading and banking, King Louis XIV forbade them to leave and stationed soldiers in their homes and abused them, perhaps similar to the recent German Gestapo. History tells us that in 1685 the Edict of Nantes took away all rights of the Protestants in France, and that 800,000 fled from France into other countries at the risk of their lives, leaving behind them their homes and property, traveling by night and hiding in the woods during the day time. They lived on bark from the trees or whatever they could find to eat. Thus, France lost some of its best and most stable citizens and has suffered ever since from that loss. Our forefathers fled to Southwestern Germany near Alsace Loraine.

Pastor Weber of Marienthal, Germany and Milton Portz of Cleveland, Ohio, have been very helpful in supplying information on the "Before America" records of our family. Pastor Weber has sent many photographs, some of which have been reproduced for you and included with this family history.

Everyone has been very cooperative over the last number of years in supplying information for this history. * No doubt some errors have occurred in our compilation and we should be advised of any discrepancies. We have underscored those designated as deceased; we know there are others, and we should like to be advised so our master file may be kept up to date. Also, if we could have information from members of the family as to dates of births, deaths and occupations of members of our family, we will be glad to issue supplements to this history from time to time, passing on this information to members of the family.

This history took a lot of time and effort and we hope that it will be of interest to you.

Victor R. Marsh - Historian

Kathryn McCluney Campbell - Historical Secretary

* Our thanks to our Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Glenn Scherer for her efforts in collecting information for this revision of the Baab Family History
